

Personal pronouns (1)

Sort the words into the lists. Ordne die Wörter in die Listen ein.

he	she	it	they
	Caroline

Example: Caroline

1. a poster

2. Mr Rice

3. Emma

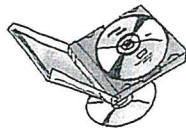

4. a football

5. a little dog

6. CDs

7. a boy

8. a fish

9. David and Hoover

10. Grandma Simpson

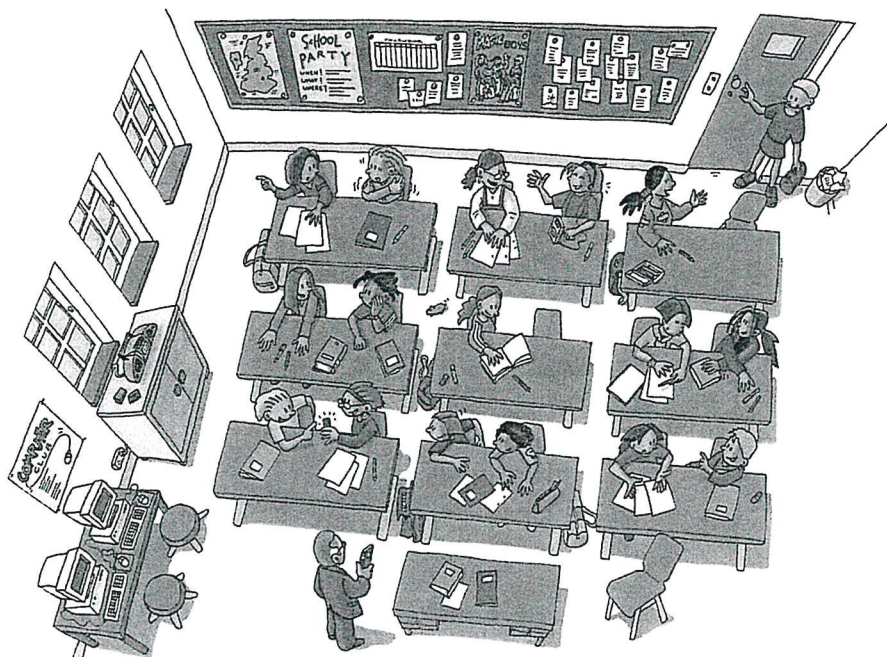

11. a cat

12. friends

Personal pronouns (2)

Put in the right word. Setze das richtige Wort ein.

Example: This is the classroom. It is very big.

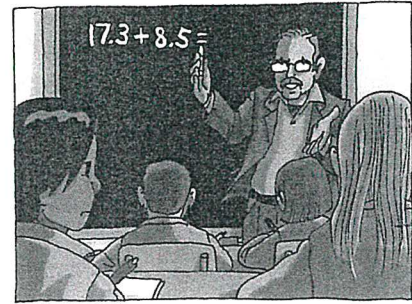

it • they • it • They •
He • it • They • We • It •
She • He • you • it

1. My friends and I are at the same school. _____ are in class 6b.
2. Our teacher is very nice. _____ doesn't give us very much homework.
3. My dream classroom has got sofas and laptops. And _____ has got a fridge for cold drinks.
4. "Where is Gillian?" – " _____ is not here."
5. Can you help me with this exercise? I don't understand _____.
6. Are you the new pupil? Where are _____ from?
7. I don't know this word. Can you spell _____?
8. Where are my sandwiches? _____ are not in my sandwich box.
9. "What's the time, please?" – " _____'s five o'clock."
10. "Do you like your classmates?" – "Yes, _____ are very nice."
11. Where is Rajiv? _____ is not in the classroom.
12. Rajiv and Charlie are good friends. _____ play together after school.

Personal pronouns (3)

Fill in the right personal pronoun.

Trage das richtige Personalpronomen ein.

The forgotten homework

It is Friday. Mr Graham comes into the classroom.

_____ (1) talks and the children listen. _____ (2) all work hard, but Rajiv is not interested. _____ (3) loves English. But _____ (4) doesn't like numbers. _____ (5) are so boring. And _____ (6) can't understand them. Rajiv starts to dream about Caroline. _____ (7) is a very nice girl. _____ (8) is fun to be with her.

David's birthday party is this Saturday. David likes music and _____ (9) has got a lot of good CDs. Perhaps Rajiv can dance with Caroline at David's party. _____ (10) is a very good dancer.

"Rajiv, _____ (11) are dreaming in class. Sorry to wake _____ (12) up", says

Mr Graham. Rajiv's face goes red. _____ (13) looks like a tomato. "Rajiv, where is your homework? Can _____ (14) see _____ (15)?" - "Oh, I'm sorry. _____ (16) haven't got it. _____ (17) is at home on my desk", says Rajiv. The bell rings. _____ (18) is five past three. All the pupils jump up. _____ (19) can go home now. But not Rajiv.

_____ (20) talks to Mr Graham. The teacher says: "Rajiv, _____ (21) don't work hard.

And _____ (22) forget your homework." - "Yes, Mr Graham. Can _____ (23) go to my friends now? _____ (24) are playing football in the park."

"Rajiv, do _____ (25) like Caroline? And does _____ (26) like you?" - " _____ (27) don't know", says Rajiv. _____ (28) is very red in his face.

" _____ (29) is OK", says Mr Graham. " _____

(30) can go. Have a nice weekend. And don't forget your homework on Monday." - "Thank _____ (31),

Mr Graham. I won't forget _____ (32)."

Possessive determiners (1)

Complete the lists with the right possessive determiners and personal pronouns.
Vervollständige die Listen mit den passenden Possessivpronomen und Personalpronomen.

... my radio...

Personal pronoun	Possessive determiner
I	my
you
we she he
it
you (plural)
they

Possessive determiner	Personal pronoun
his	he
our their your its my her
your (plural)

Possessive determiners (2)

Fill in the right possessive determiner.

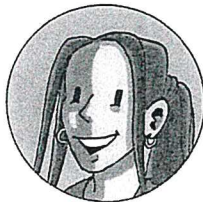

Trage das passende Possessivpronomen ein.

Example:

David, have you got your homework?

1. Gillian and Emma, where are _____ timetables?
2. We want to email David. Have you got _____ email address?
3. David and I can't wash _____ hands. There is no water.
4. Do you think that Rajiv and Caroline are happy at _____ school?
5. We can't do _____ homework because we don't understand it.
6. The pupils can't eat _____ sandwiches in class.
7. I want to phone Gillian. Have you got _____ telephone number?
8. Mr and Mrs Graham live in London. But _____ son lives in America.

Personal pronoun or possessive determiner?

Mrs Scott and her friends

Fill in the right personal pronoun or possessive determiner.

Trage das richtige Personalpronomen oder Possessivpronomen ein.

Hello, I am Carol Scott. _____ am from Manchester and _____ have got many friends. _____ best friend is Ray. _____ likes reading and _____ has got many books. _____ likes cooking, too and _____ kitchen is very big. Ray is very big, too. Ray has got a funny dog. _____ name is Karen and _____ can do a lot of tricks. My friend Tracy has got a very nice house. _____ likes flowers. _____ two hamsters like to play in the garden. Sometimes _____ eat the flowers in Tracy's garden. Then _____ puts the hamsters back into _____ box. How are _____? Have _____ got pets, too? Are _____ nice?

Mr Pendlebury and his friends

Fill in the right personal pronoun or possessive determiner.

Trage das richtige Personalpronomen oder Possessivpronomen ein.

Hello, my name is Pendlebury, Jonathan Pendlebury. _____ am from London and _____ have got many friends. _____ best friend is Carla Peel. _____ is 76 years old, but _____ is very fit. _____ hobby is karate and _____ is very strong. Don't get in _____ way, or _____ will be in trouble. But don't worry, _____ is very nice. Carla has got an old goldfish. _____ name is Goldie. _____ doesn't talk so much, but _____ is a good swimmer. Gregory is another good friend. _____ is very funny and very, very tall, and _____ hands are very big. _____ plays basketball and _____ team is very good. Gregory and I play in a band. _____ plays the piano and _____ play the guitar. _____ often play at parties. The people like _____ and _____ dance to it. _____ is great. _____ love it. Now, what is _____ name? Where are _____ from? Have _____ got a hobby? What about _____ friends? Do _____ like music? Have _____ got hobbies? What about _____ pets? Do _____ like animals?